

Call for papers: panel discussions in English

The Political Economy and Economic History Society will be holding the Autumn Conference, from Saturday to Sunday, October 14-15, 2017 at Osaka University of Commerce, Japan. The Research Committee of the Society invites interested scholars to submit panel discussion proposals. Each panel has a two-and-a-half-hour time share, to consist of several presentations followed by a discussion. The chair of the panel is expected to arrange a summary Japanese translation of the presentations and discussion, if necessary.

Applicants are kindly requested to download the proposal form from the Society website (<http://seikeisi.ssoj.info/>), and enter 1) the panel session title, 2) the current affiliation and contact details for the chair, 3) a brief description of less than 800 words in English outlining the theme or topic of the panel, title of the papers to be read with name and affiliation of paper presenters, as well as the time schedule of the panel. Please send the application form before Monday, June 5, 2017, by e-mail to the Secretariat seikeishi@gmail.com. The result of the application will be sent to the contact person by mid-July.

The chair of the session should be a member of the Political Economy and Economic History Society. For details of membership and further information, please contact the Secretariat before the application. Thank you.
